1. How long have you known the applicant and in what context? I have known Ann Walsh for three years as her Honors Geometry and Honors Trigonometry/PreCalculus instructor. I have also worked with Ann as the St. Ignatius Scholars Program moderator in which she is a member.
2. What are the first words that come to mind to describe the applicant and why? The words that first come to mind to describe Ann are personable, outgoing, and genuine. One of Ann's greatest gifts is her ability to positively interact with all of those individuals around her.
3. Please describe distinguishing academic characteristics of this applicant that you have observed in your class. In class, Ann always strived to work hard and comprehend all course material. She was a conscientious student who persevered at all times, especially when faced with difficult tasks.
4. Please describe distinguishing personal attributes of this applicant that you have observed in your class. Ann's optimistic, easy-going spirit served her well when working with others. She effortlessly makes others feel comfortable and included.
5. Please make additional comments about the applicant's potential for growth that would help the admissions committee with the selection process. Ann's involvement in the Student Ambassador Program speaks volumes of her poise and maturity. She was chosen to represent and promote Bishop Canevin High School to visitors and potential students. Ann is dedicated to a wide variety of extra-curricular activities that include golf, Crusaders for Justice, and the school musical. I am confident that Ann will be an asset to your educational institution both in and out of the classroom.
