Award Committee:

Ronald Coleman, in my opinion, is an excellent candidate for award of the your scholarship. In addition to being an excellent student academically, he is involved in several extra-curricular activities. After teaching for nineteen years, I can truly say that Ronald is one student that I will never forget. I have had the pleasure of knowing Ronald for over a year now, and I highly recommend him to be a recipient of the scholarship.

Throughout his time at Kiski, Ronald has managed to leave his mark on the school. He is well liked by his peers and the faculty. In addition to his academic achievement, Ronald is an integral member of many of she school's clubs and sports teams. Ronald serves his community well as exhibited through his leadership in the National Honor Society and the school's Key Club. Through these clubs, Ronald has worked at the local food bank, Salvation Army fund drive, and the Youth Day of Caring. Ronald has also volunteered his time to help with local Veterans Memorial. In addition to these activities, Ronald is a leader of the track team and ski club. I know I can count on Ronald to get things done when asked. With all of the responsibilities Ronald takes on, he still maintains a well above average GPA, thus demonstrating great time management skills. Through the time I have spent with Ronald, I have found him to be an upstanding, respectful young man.

Ronald Coleman is mature and responsible. I have been lucky enough to work with Ronald as his AP English 11 teacher, Broadcast media teacher and NHS advisor. He was always prepared for class and had much to add to class discussion. He tackles responsibility effortlessly. After working closely with Ronald, I am proud and confident when I say he will be extremely successful in his field of study. Ronald will be a great addition to the list of scholarship winners.
