To whom it may concern,

I worked with Miranda Palmer as her supervisor at the Ligonier Valley Chamber of Commerce, where she used her excellent writing and marketing instincts to deliver spectacular results in the role of our marketing and content development intern. I am confident that Miranda's exceptional work ethic, professional experience, and personal qualities will make her a powerful force entering her college years.

As our intern, Miranda demonstrated a strong love for her community. The ideas Miranda brought to the table and the excitement of which she brought them to life is something to be admired. Miranda is a self-starter. When tasked with creating blogs for Ligonier.com, she created a list of content that has driven traffic to our websites and social media. Passion, work ethic, and strong instincts can not be taught. Miranda joined our team determined to do her best.

What's more, Miranda's bright personality and laugh always made her a stand-out member of the team. During our business breakfasts, Miranda showcased her sunny disposition, instantly making clients feel connected to her.

Miranda has my highest recommendation for anything she is interested in. I have no doubt that whatever task Miranda sets her mind to she will accomplish. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions regarding Miranda.

Sincerely,
