To Whom It May Concern:

It is a great pleasure to recommend Sydney Hoffman for the TribLive Scholarship. Sydney is an outstanding student who not only excels at academics, but also has a passion for helping others. Sydney has distinguished herself from her classmates through her strong work ethic, dedication and kindness.

In the area of academics, Sydney demonstrates her work ethic and determination by choosing extremely challenging Honors and AP courses which will help her prepare for a career in the medical field. She works diligently in order to maintain a 100.26 G.P.A. and as a result is ranked 13th out of 460 students. Sydney's academic achievements have led to her induction in National Honor Society, Science National Honor Society, French National Honor Society and Tri-M Honors Society.

Not only is Sydney dedicated to her academics, but also to her extracurricular activities. Throughout her four years at Hempfield Area High School, Sydney has been very involved in the marching band and concert band. As a committed member of the band, Sydney has held leadership positions such as section leader of the clarinets and band president. Sydney has also held leadership positions as Treasurer of Tri-M Honors Society and Historian for French National Honor Society. Outside of school, Sydney's most rewarding activity is community service. She finds joy in devoting ten hours a week to helping others through her volunteer work. Although she has many academic and extracurricular demands, Sydney has been able to manage her time well enough to have a part-time job for the last two years.

Sydney Hoffman is a remarkable young woman, not only in her academic achievements but in her strength of character. Therefore, I highly recommend Sydney for your scholarship. Please feel free to contact me for any further information about this extraordinary student.

Sincerely,
