SUBJ: Outstanding Young Citizens Award (recommendation)

TO: Whom it Concerns

This letter of recommendation supports our cadet, Ms Kristen Vigna. Kristen has been a part of Air Force JROTC since she entered high school and has progressed through the years gaining cadet rank, responsibility, and setting the example. Her goal of eventually study the space environment was her impetus to stay engaged in JROTC. She consistently pushes herself to new heights. Kristen is not only an accomplished student but a musician as well. A well recognized Pit Orchestra member and also a member of Pine Richland (PR) High School's orchestra, jazz band, and jazz ensemble. Kristen has mastered several musical instruments. She understands time management and executes it well.

Cadet Vigna is an exceptional student, accomplished musician, and also finds time to lead her PR Crew team as Women's Captain both junior and senior years. In between the many activities she participates in, she still finds time for community service. During the summer, Kristen donates time to the Children's Museum of Pittsburgh to help children navigate the numerous activities throughout the museum. She also supports her sister's horse riding activities by tending to the horses and assisting the team with any help they require. She has a total of 30 hours completing an assortment of community service activities with JROTC. Again, she maintains a phenomenal schedule of aiding her family, school, and community.

Academically, Cadet Vigna maintains a very rigorous schedule of honors and AP classes. She maintains a high GPA requirement to remain a member of the National Honors Society. Kristen is the total student package who excels in all her endeavors. Cadet Kristen Vigna, a true leader and shining example for others to emulate.
